

1-844-DIS-VOTE
www.disabilityvote.org

The Difference between Proof of Residence and Proof of ID for Voting in Wisconsin

Proof of Residence

Proof of residence is used to register to vote. Can be documents like:

- Utility Bill: issued within 90 days of the election.
- Driver License or ID: must be valid and show the voter's current name and address.
- Pay stub, bank statement, etc.: There are many other documents like a paystub that can be used.

Shows voter's current name and current address. Can show a copy or show it on your electronic device.

More information on Proof of Residence:

<https://myvote.wi.gov/ProofofResidence>.

Photo ID

Photo ID is used after you've registered to get your ballot. Can use documents like:

- U.S. Passport
- Wisconsin Driver License or ID
- Veteran's or Military ID: IDs like a Veteran's ID can be used.

Does not need a current address. Shows the voter's name as they are registered to vote.

More information on Photo ID:

<https://myvote.wi.gov/PhotoIDRequired>